

Publishing Agreement for Dissertations, Master's Theses and Master's Reports

Please read the following publishing agreement. Below the agreement, please indicate approval by checking the box provided.

Once this agreement is in place, changes to publishing options (access or embargos) can be requested in writing to the Graduate School (gradschool@mtu.edu). Please note that changing a Creative Commons license after your work has been published is problematic, as these licenses are not revocable. Read more about this on the Creative Commons FAQ.

I hereby certify that, if appropriate, I have obtained and included in my thesis, report, or dissertation a written permission statement from the owner(s) of each third-party copyrighted matter to be included in my dissertation, thesis, or report, allowing archiving, accessibility, and licensing as specified below. For guidance on how and when to obtain permission, see Section 5.3 of The Guide to Preparing a Dissertation, Thesis, or Report at Michigan Technological University.

I hereby grant to Michigan Technological University and its agents the non-exclusive license to archive and make accessible my dissertation, thesis, or report in whole or in part in all forms of media, now or hereafter known, according to the access and licensing options I have chosen. I also grant to the J. Robert Van Pelt and John and Ruanne and Opie Library the right to make copies of my work for off-campus interlibrary loan requesters or to replace a lost copy of the published work in accordance with U.S. Copyright Law. I retain all ownership rights to the copyright of the thesis, report, or dissertation, except to the extent that it contains proprietary information related to inventions or computer software as provided by MTU Operating Procedures Manual Sec. 11.1.

I hereby certify that the work presented in this document is original. To ensure originality, I have analyzed the document using plagiarism detection software or other methods and have corrected the document accordingly.

NOTE: It is suggested that you print this page for your records.

By checking the box below, I certify that I have read and understand the agreement above, and I am the student named in this submission.
